Some Seasonable Advice.
It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

"Now Pat," said a magistrate to an old offender, "what brought you here again?"
"Two policemen, sor," was the laconic reply.
"Drunk, I suppose?" queried the magistrate.
"Yes sor," said Pat, "both av thim."

Sick headache is caused by a disordered condition of the stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

The blow of a whale's tail is the strongest animal force in the world, the kick of a giraffe is second and the stroke of a lion's paw the third.

Don't Borrow Trouble.
It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At G. L. Penny's, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

"All presents received were merely inexpensive mementos of the trip, such as one traveling in a strange country might receive," says the president's daughter. "There was really nothing remarkable about my trip and I can't understand why so much fuss is made of it. I had an exceptionally fine time and enjoyed every moment I was away. The only thing I regret is that so many nonsensical stories were circulated regarding me," further remarked Miss Alice Roosevelt to a San Francisco reporter.
